Cologne, 27-30.10.2026

ORGATEC

ORGATEC - moves what matters.

What's here to stay? What's changing? What's being reimaged? ORGATEC is the place where key questions about the world of work are discussed and translated into practical solutions. Interdisciplinary, international, inspirational. Participants don't just signal the way forward - they're right at the heart of the action when new working environments become reality.

Shape the future

Experience and contribute towards the major developments in the world of work - physical, digital, cultural - all in one place.

Set impulses

Share ideas, point the way forward and draw attention to your capacity for innovation.

Meet relevant target groups

Decision-makers, planners and thought leaders from the worlds of business, architecture, design and politics.

Achieve international visibility

Be part of a leading international trade fair with on-site and online reach and media coverage.

State your position

Raise the profile of your brand in the conversation about new ways of working, sustainability, technological innovations and the changing world of work.

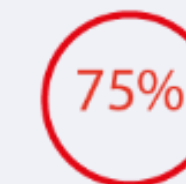

Make success measurable

Establish genuine contacts, direct leads and long-term partnerships that extend beyond the trade fair.

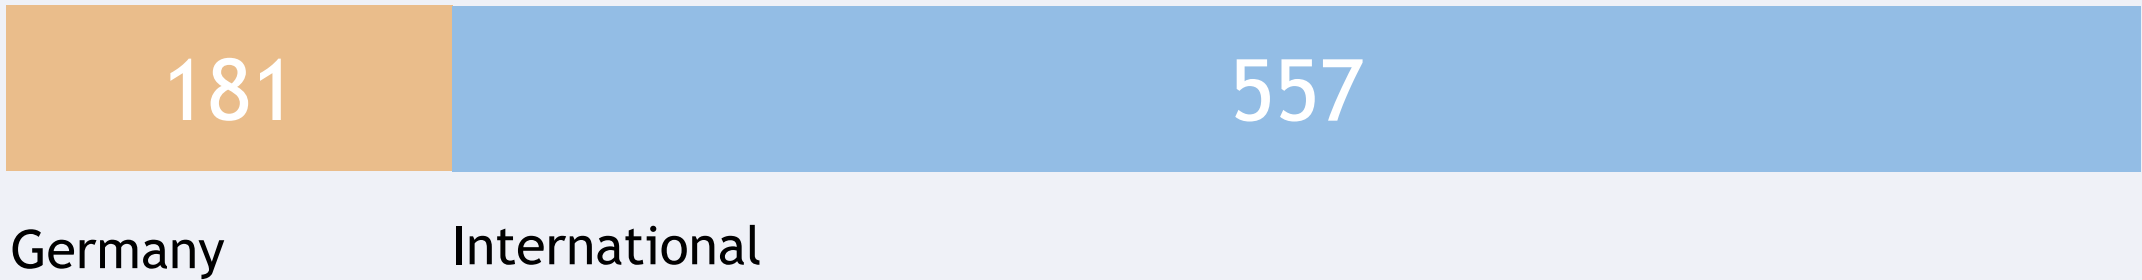

Demonstrate diversity. Have an international impact.

From Europe to Asia and from start-ups to market leaders, the ORGATEC exhibitor landscape is as international and diverse as the world of work itself. This is where strong brands meet a global audience - and present solutions with an international appeal. Whether new products, forward-looking concepts or brand presentations that cover every angle, ORGATEC offers exhibitors a platform with reach, relevance and direct access to potential business partners.

“NEW VISIONS OF WORK”: ORGATEC 2026 shows how diverse, networked and visionary modern working environments are today. The exhibition programme covers the entire thematic breadth of modern work - from architecture and design to technological solutions and holistic concepts for space and culture. The clearly defined exhibition areas make it possible to address your target groups in a targeted manner and to position them precisely.

Product segments

- Office Facility Planning, Construction, Extension and Management/Contracting
- Office and Office Facility Equipment/Contract business
- Furnishings for Office and the contract business
- Organisational/Planning Systems, Office Supplies, Accessories
- IT, Telecommunications, Software and Services

Relevance meets experience: The event programme.

The ORGATEC 2024 event programme was a stage, forum and meeting place all in one with a selected mix of formats that provided inspiration, dialogue and new perspectives. The high level of interest and the positive response confirm this: Formats for dialogue and future topics strike a chord with the industry. In 2026, this successful concept will be continued in its basic features and further developed in a targeted manner. Details will follow shortly - stay tuned!

The 2024 event programme at a glance
